I wonder why the pirates liked this place to hide their treasures instead of a good old barn.
They really liked drama, I guess.

You're very quiet, Miss Abbott, are we on the right path?

Oh, yes!
It's only that... since I got trapped in a cave some time ago...
... I don't like darkness very much.

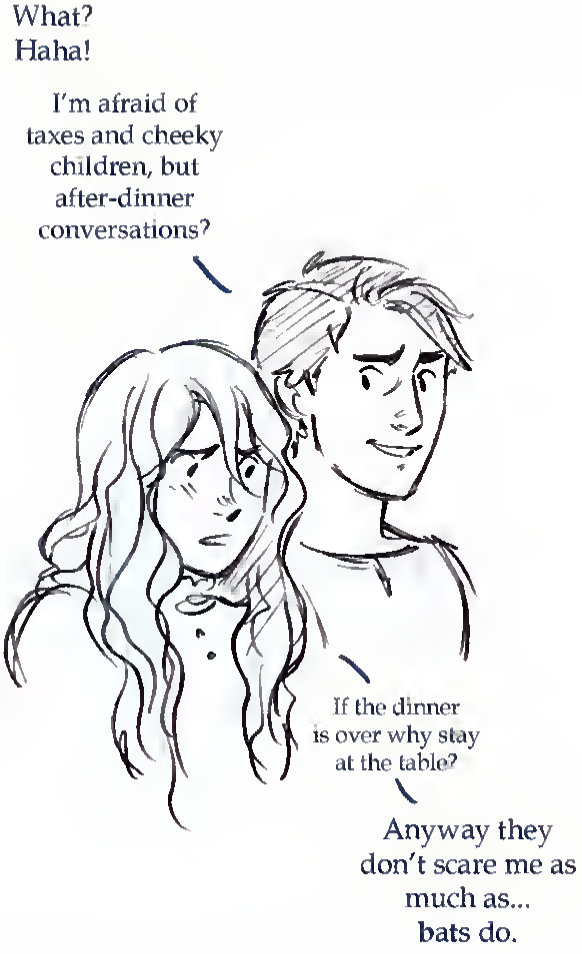
Really? I thought you didn't fear anything.

Are you mocking me?
No, I'm serious. You're the bravest person I know.

I-I fear a lot of things!

I'm afraid of the darkness, the vengeful spirits...

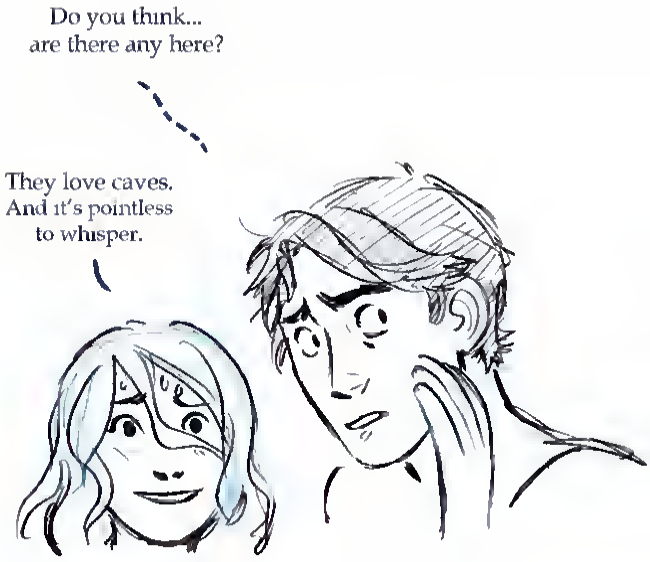
I'm afraid of after-dinner conversations...



What?
Haha!
I'm afraid of taxes and cheeky children, but after-dinner conversations?
If the dinner is over why stay at the table?
Anyway they don't scare me as much as... bats do.

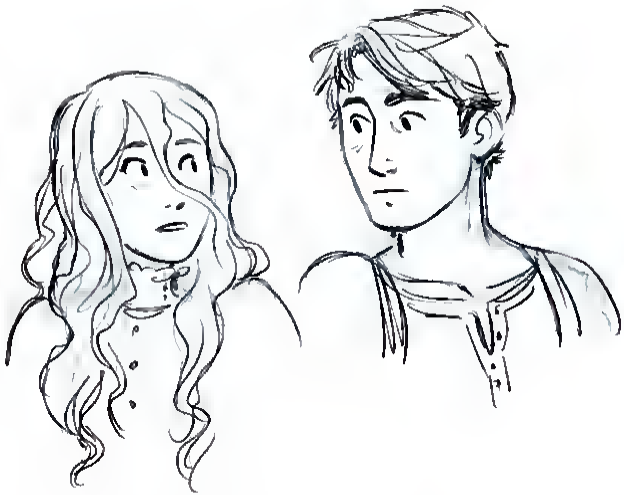
Bats!
Oh, I hate them too!
They are horrible, horrible creatures...

Do you know there's a species of bat that feeds on blood?
Argh! No way!

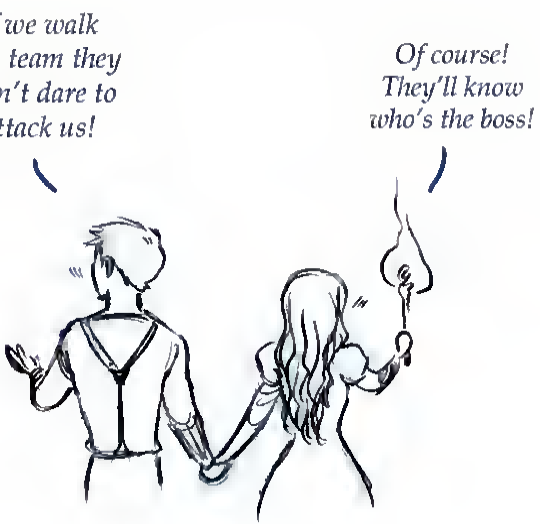


Do you think...
are there any here?
They love caves.
And it's pointless
to whisper.

Why did we have to talk about them?!
I-I don't know... Stay close...



This close?
O-ok...



If we walk as a team they won't dare to attack us!
Of course! They'll know who's the boss!

This way.

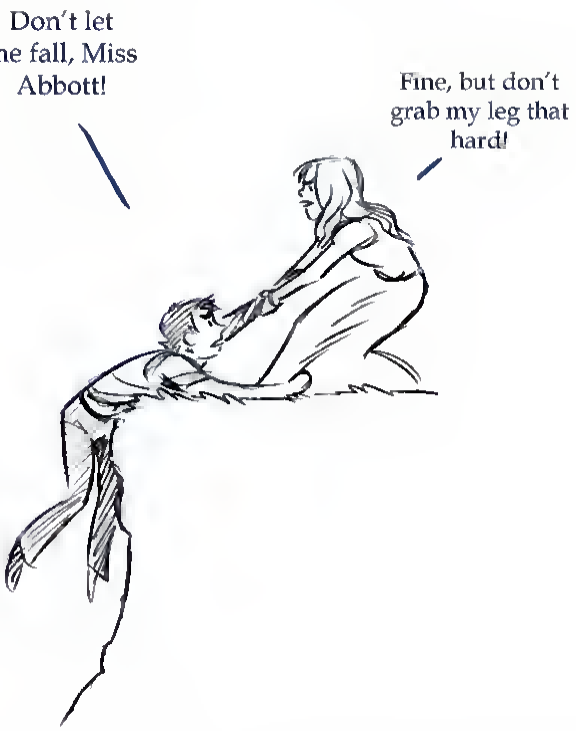
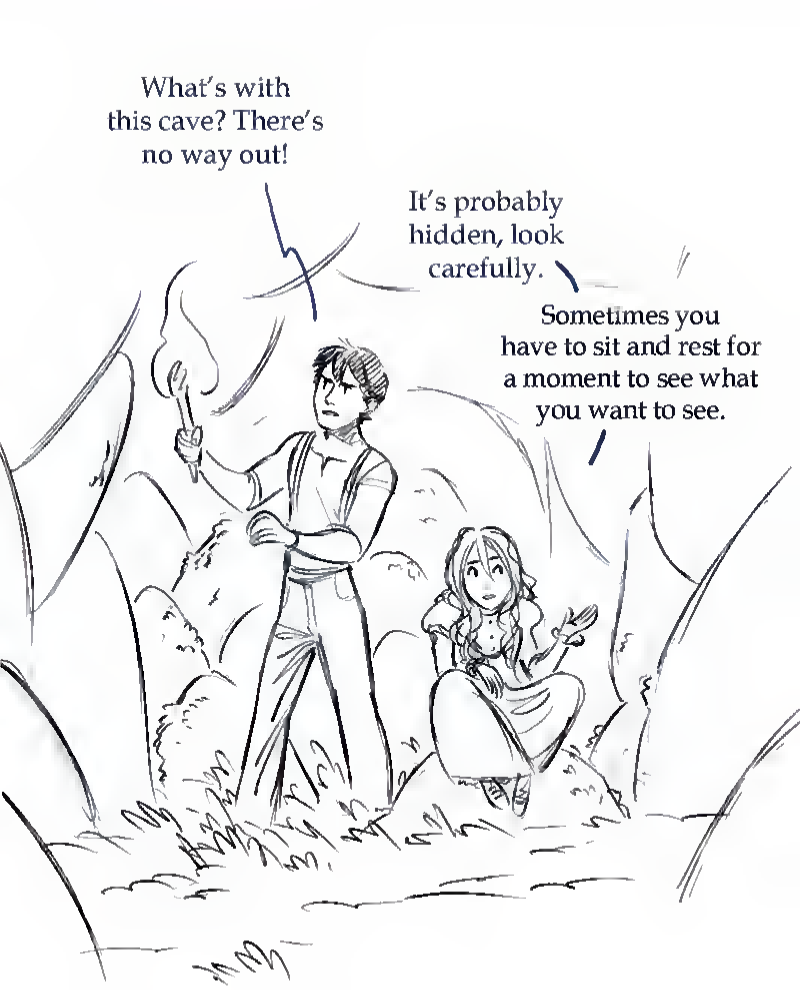
The soil ladder collapsed, but it has to be this way.



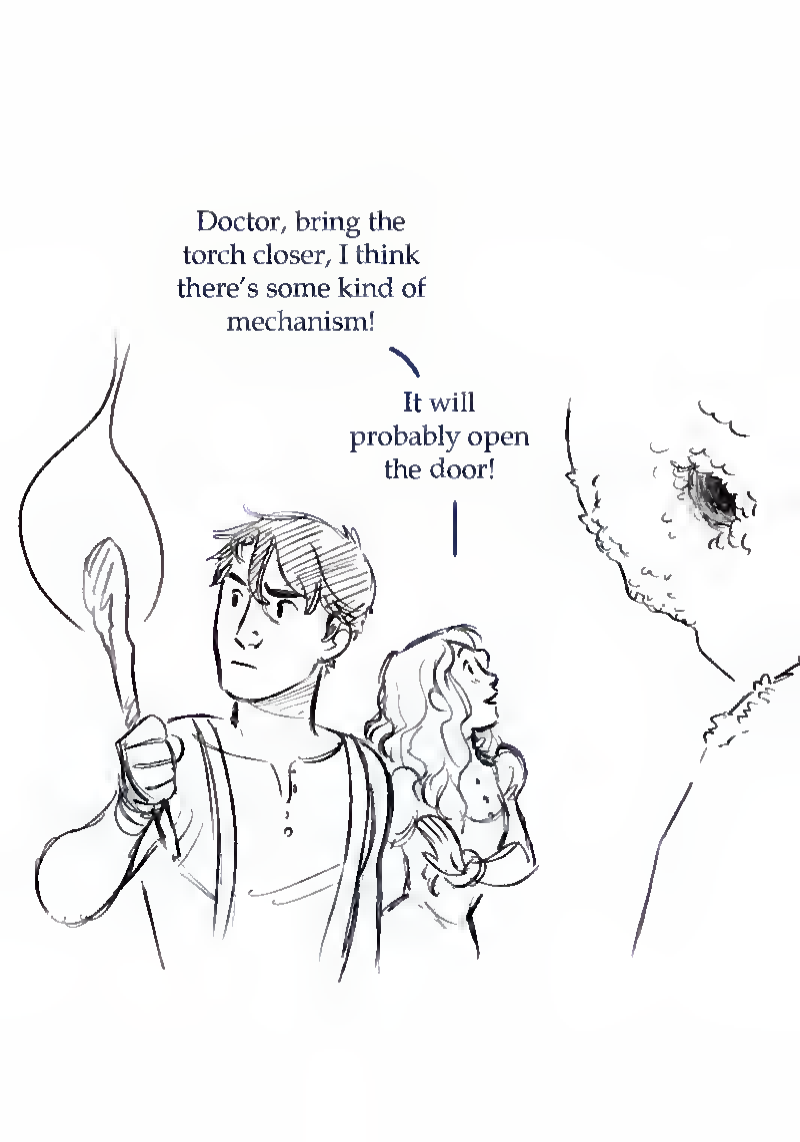
Don't let me fall, Miss Abbott!
Fine, but don't grab my leg that hard!



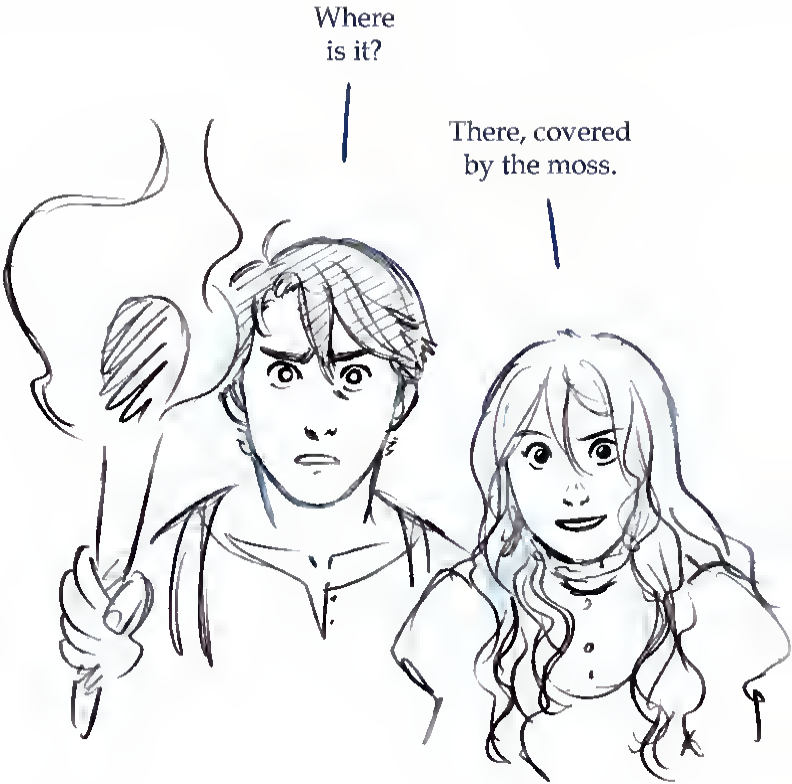
What's with this cave? There's no way out!
It's probably hidden, look carefully.
Sometimes you have to sit and rest for a moment to see what you want to see.

I see nothing.
Anything interesting from your spot?

Y-yes, but nothing that can help us in this moment!
Hahaha!

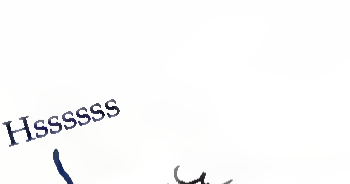


Doctor, bring the torch closer, I think there's some kind of mechanism!
It will probably open the door!

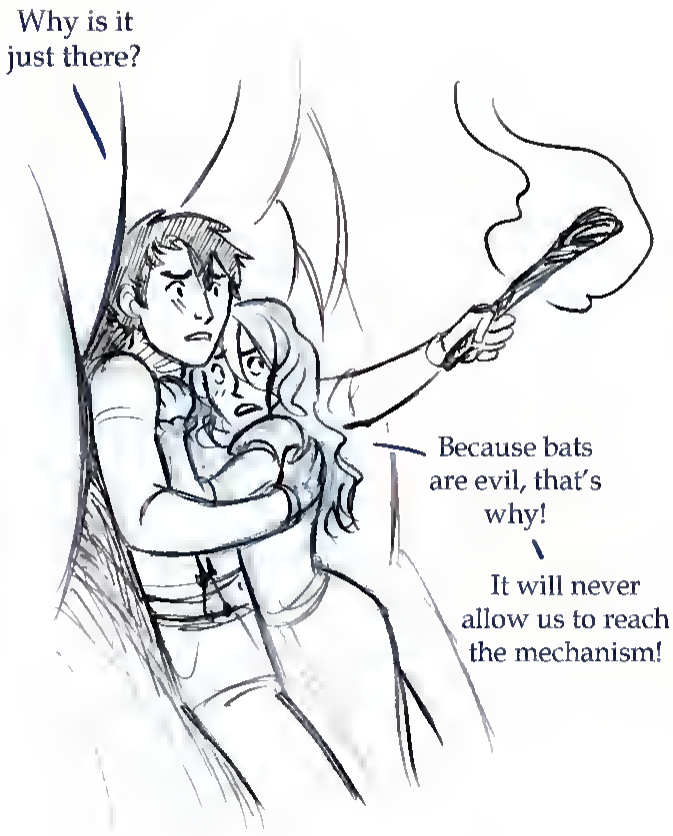


Where is it?
There, covered by the moss.

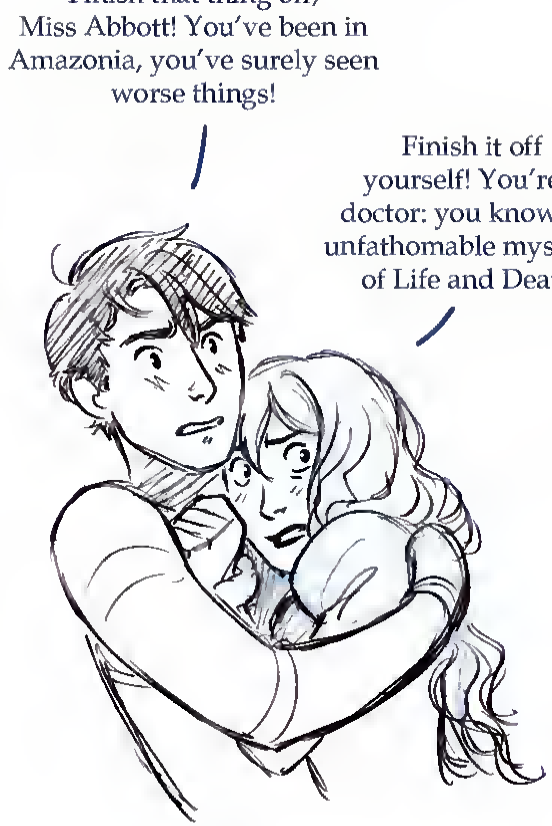
Uaaaah!
Bat
aleeeeert!



Hsssssss



Why is it just there?
Because bats are evil, that's why!
It will never allow us to reach the mechanism!



Finish that thing off, Miss Abbott! You've been in Amazonia, you've surely seen worse things!
Finish it off yourself! You're a doctor: you know the unfathomable mysteries of Life and Death!

We have to fight.
I'll chase it away with the torch and you'll activate the mechanism.

Ok, but let's make a promise: if I die down here you'll tell everyone I died heroically fighting a... giant crocodile-like creature from an ancient era.
I'll do the same for you. Nobody must know what really happened. Deal?
Deal!

Uaaaaaah!

Get out, you nasty thing!

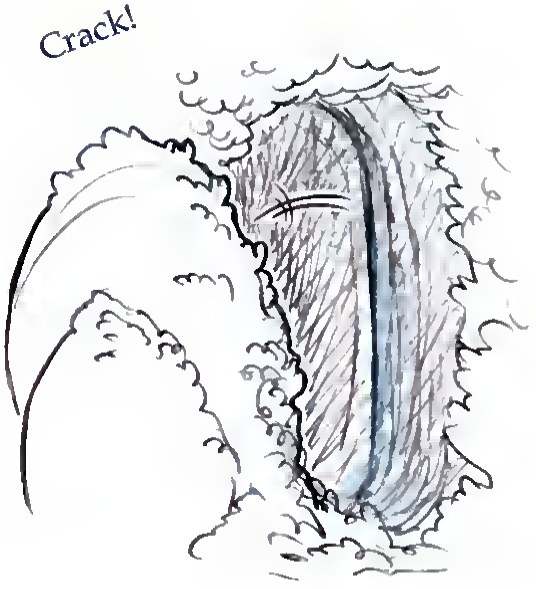
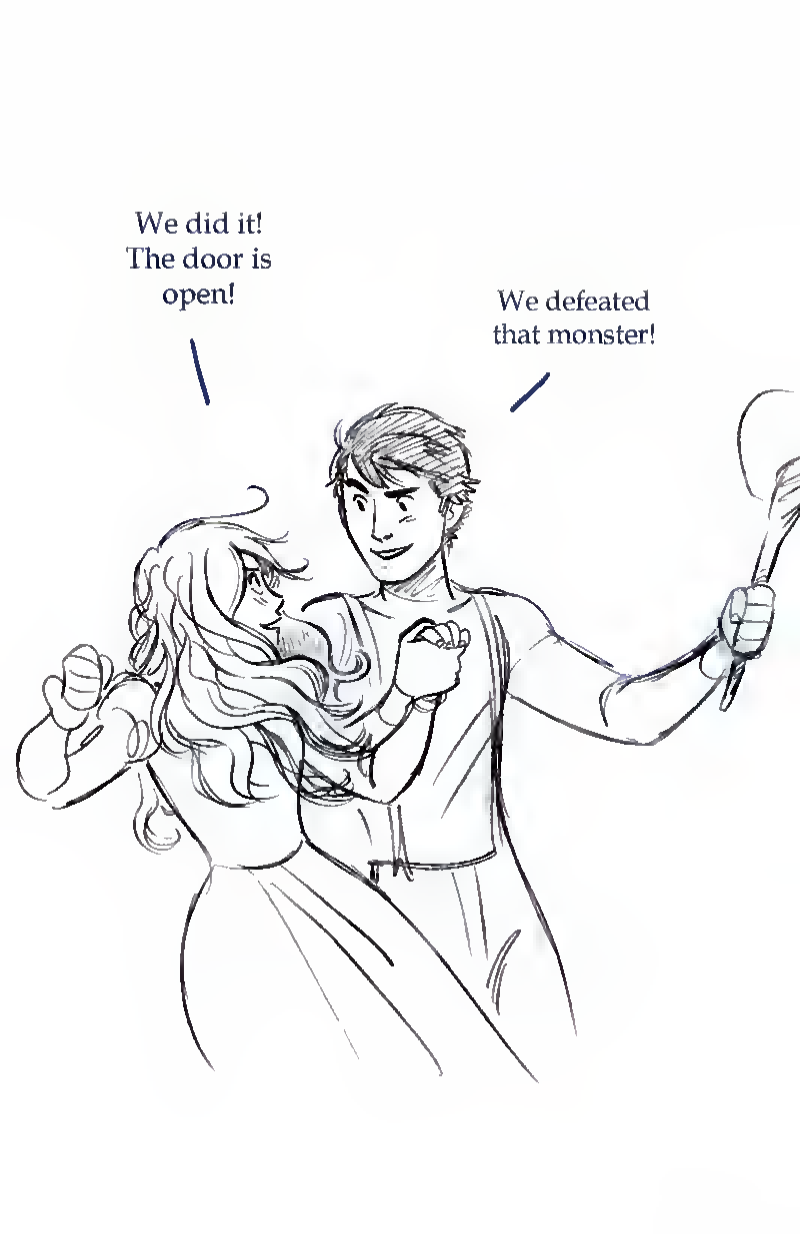
Hsssssssssssss!!!

Clack!
Yesssssss!



Crack!



We did it!
The door is open!
We defeated that monster!

Run!

Wait, I think we left it behind!

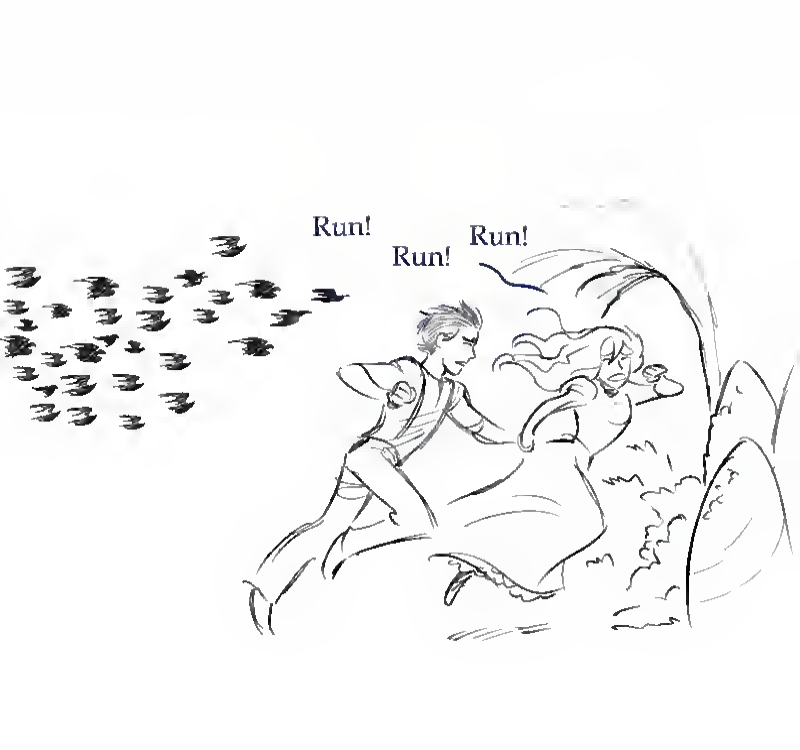
It looked resentful, did you see its eyes? I wonder why was it wandering alone in these caves.
Ha! Why do you wonder that?

Bats are usually lonely animals, am I right?
You're absolutely NOT right.

Uaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah!

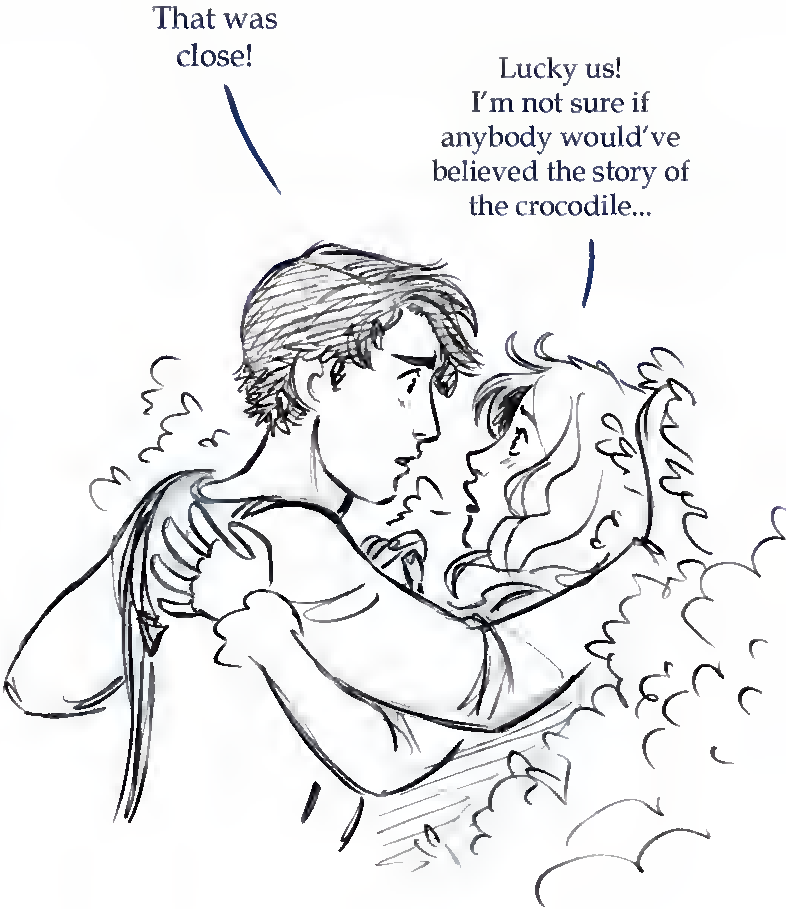
The exit!!!



Run!
Run!
Run!

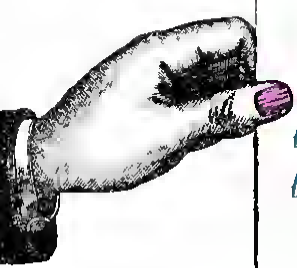
Turn
now!

Hsssssssssssss!



That was close!
Lucky us! I'm not sure if anybody would've believed the story of the crocodile...

Pfffhahaha!



Sorry, I haven't been able to reply to your comments lately because I'm drawing non-stop, but I always read all of them. You're amazing and make me laugh. I love you all!

Miss Abbott and the doc have been dubbed,
HOW COOL IS THAT?
